9. QUESTION TIME

10. MOTIONS ON NOTICE (REPRESENTATION)

1. That the 104th Guild Council recommends that clubs whenever possible allow students with food allergies and other dietary requirements to bring their own food and drink into club events.

Moved: Alexander Robinson, Seconded: Alexandra O'Brien

2. That the 104th Guild Council lobbies the university to immediately address the rise in cheating in the form of students having access to unreleased past examinations granting those students an unfair advantage over students in the same unit who do not have access. Action by the university and the faculties is required to bring equity and avoid a loss of credibility. The Guild Council proposes the solution that all faculties release past examinations for at least the past three years and/or exams must be 100% different from at least the past three years of exams.

Moved: Alexander Robinson, Seconded: Alexandra O'Brien

3. That the UWA Student Guild:

a) Recognises the release of the 'Respect. Now. Always.' survey data on August 1st 2017 and stands in solidarity with all survivors of sexual assault and harassment;

b) Commits to the National Union of Student's campaign to end sexual assault on campus.

Moved: Hannah Matthews, Seconded: Megan Lee
